

How do I request a Colleague account

Colleague is the Russell Sage College's software that maintains various information about students, faculty and employees.

When requesting a Colleague account, you must do this under your own login. You can not have someone else request access for you.

The form will ask you who's security to copy. Please see your supervisor for more information.

To request an account

Click here to request and account.